

Keith Lavanway Junior Year Scholarship

Introduction: Keith Lavanway is a graduate of MLHS and Western Michigan University. He is a successful business owner who believes and is a testimony that “bigger” isn’t necessarily better. In order to impact others to continue their journey through MLHS and into college, he has set up a full, one-year scholarship to a deserving incoming junior at MLHS.

The administrative council of Michigan Lutheran High School is blessed to award one junior year student at MLHS a full year of tuition and fees (up to $7000) for the upcoming school year. This gift has been given by a graduate of Michigan Lutheran who wants to give back to his alma mater in appreciation for what his time at MLHS did for him, his faith, and his success. The following criteria is being used to award this gift to a deserving family for their upcoming school year.

Demonstrated Value of Christian Education – Both the parents and the student have demonstrated through their words and actions the benefit of a Christian Education.

Merit Based – The student has remained faithful to their education and has led by example in the classroom and in extra-curricular involvement.

Demonstrated fruits of faith – Faith in action is evident by the student and the family

Loyalty and spirit – The family and student have a strong sense of loyalty to Michigan Lutheran High School

Parents and the student should fill out this application and return it to MLHS by May 20.
